'Tis the brown month by the calendar;
 yet Vermont is still green.

Bulgaria is hanging on two horns of a dilemma and is undecided which is the sharper and more piercing.

This is the day of some slight joy in these United States—Dumba is going home.

The art of falling between the wheels when knocked down by an automobile seems to be growing as people gain dexterity by experience.

The $250 taken by robbers from passengers on a western train must have looked like "small potatoes" to the dusky porters on the same train.

Those Armenian atrocities now uppermost in the public mind lose their horror when contemplated alongside the daily massacre going on between civilized nations.

It is a strange school of diplomacy which Germany follows in her negotiations with the United States on the questions arising from submarine attack on vessels of both American and British registry.

While neighboring states are working up to a fine frenzy over politics, Vermont is permitted to go about its everyday affairs without such a handicap. Biennial elections have some distinct advantages.

Denial is made by Bulgaria that her armies are being led by German officers. The Turks, we believe, made a similar denial some months ago and time proved the untruthfulness of their denial. Possibly Bulgaria will be forced to eat her own words also.

The value of a highway guard rail was demonstrated at Montpelier last Saturday when a light motor car slid off the crown of the road toward the Wisconsin river and would have gone the whole distance into deep water had it not been for the wooden fence erected at that point on Berlin street. The highway guard rail is often held lightly, but it has more often justified itself. If towns and cities would go to the slight outlay demanded and erect more fences of substantial nature along the roadside the list of road accidents would be materially shortened.

WILLIAMSTOWN.

The grange is to hold its eighth annual fair in the hall on Friday and Saturday of this week, Oct. 8 and 9, both afternoon and evening. A baked bean supper will be served on Friday evening from 5 to 8 o'clock, followed by the following entertainment: Band concert; reading, Mrs. George H. Goodrich; solo, Miss Arlene J. Ford; reading, Miss Florence Hubbard. A hash supper will be served on Saturday evening at the same hours, with entertainment as follows: Solo, Mrs. A. A. Reed; reading, Dr. F. M. Lynde of Barre; solo, Miss Margery Bartlett; solo, Guy George. A large number of booths will be erected in the hall and county, popcorn, fancy work, food and domestic articles will be on sale. The public is cordially invited to co-operate with the members of the grange in making this fair the best yet. The winter series of the meetings of the Home Study club begin Thursday afternoon. This meeting will be held with Mrs. Sarah and Elizabeth Seaver and will be a "Travel Afternoon."

A little flurry of excitement was caused last Saturday about 10:30 a. m. by the discovery that a guy wire attached to an electric light pole near Eugene Reynolds' was crossed with one of the main electric wires and was setting on fire the tree to which the guy wire was fastened. Later the guy burned off and dropped to the ground. Word was telephoned to the office at Graniteville and a man was sent down who shut off the current and repaired the damage. Mrs. William W. Neifurt of Hartford, Conn., has lately visited her aunt, Mrs. Emeline Richardson. Mrs. John C. Morgan of Stowe and her

Three billion bushels of corn, 1,500,000,000 bushels of oats, 1,000,000,000 bushels of wheat is the crop report of this year's American harvest.

Rye, potatoes, rice and hay also report record crops.

This means prosperity for the whole country.

It also means the good clothes we have provided will be in demand. Our preparedness you will appreciate.

Patterns in suits and overcoats the best yet.

Suits $10 to $25.

Overcoats $10 to $30.

To-day in our window we show suits at $20 that are going some.

cousin, Mrs. George B. Holden of Lowell, Mass., were in town over Sunday for a visit to their aunt, Mrs. Albert R. Martin, and other members of the Townsend family. Mrs. Holden is the daughter of Mrs. Calista (Townsend) Childs, and had not been in town for several years.

Charles U. Sivright, rural carrier on route No. 3, is taking his annual vacation of 15 days, and the route is covered during his absence by Substitute Carrier Albert S. Cowles.

Miss Agnes McKay of Barre is employed as bookkeeper and stenographer at Paksera Bros' granite plant.

Following the custom of several years, the Ladies' Improvement society has arranged for a course of entertainments to be given in the grange hall this winter, and would highly appreciate the hearty support of our citizens in the undertaking. The functions are to be five in number and are furnished by the Eastern Empire Lyceum bureau. The first number in the course will be given Oct. 21 and will be a musical number by the harmony trio. This will be followed by the Otterheim male quartet on Nov. 18, lecture by Morris G. Hindus on Dec. 17, an evening with the noted entertainer, S. Platt Jones, on Jan. 31, 1916, and the Louny-Lawrence entertainers on Feb. 29. Cards are now being circulated to find out approximately how many tickets are desired and the tickets will go on sale on Oct. 7 at 8 o'clock at W. M. Williams' store. Children under 12 years of age are to be admitted free.

FILM EXCITEMENT KILLS HER.

Quincy, Mass., Woman Falls Dead While Witnessing Battle on Screen.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 5.—Excited by a moving picture scene in the Palm theatre, Hough's Neck, Mrs. Florence Lemmon, wife of Herbert E. Lemon, a Quincy business man, fell dead of heart failure Sunday night.

She was watching a scene in which the mother of a young outlaw was battling with a sheriff.
